Agreement: This document constitutes the order for your wedding video recorded and edited by Visions for the Future, LLC. It is understood that Visions for the Future, LLC may use your video or digital pictures on their website, for advertising, or any other purpose thought proper by Visions for the Future, LLC.

Limit of Liability: If Visions for the Future, LLC is unable to produce a video for you due to failure of equipment, damage of processing, or any other reason our only liability is for a complete refund of all deposits. In the unlikely event that the videographer is injured or becomes too ill to record the event, the videographer will make every effort to secure a replacement crew. If the situation should occur and a suitable replacement is not found, responsibility and liability is limited to the return of all payments that have been made.

Retainer Fee: Upon signature, Visions for the Future, LLC reserves the time and date agreed upon and will not make any other appointments for the specified time. If you change your wedding date to a date we are not available it will be considered a cancellation. If your wedding is cancelled for any reason, you will forfeit any payments made up till that time; however, if Visions for the Future is able to rebook the date within the month of cancellation, all but $100.00 of the retainer fee will be refunded.

Payment: The client agrees to pay 25% of the package price upon booking and the remainder when the video is completed, usually 30 days after the event. In event of payment default, the CLIENT is responsible for (but not limited to) bad check fees, collection costs, certified mailing, lawyer fees, and court costs.
